LAST CALL FOR ALL SCHOOL WRITE SCORING VOLUNTEERS!!!
WE NEED YOU!

On September 29, 2009 all Issaquah Middle School students participated in the second annual All School Write (ASW). The preparation and use of the results of this activity will help the students improve their overall writing skills, as well as their familiarity with writing assessments.

We have had a number of dedicated volunteers help score the student All School Write final drafts; however, we are in need of one final round of volunteers to complete all papers. There is a detailed rubric that allows for effective and systematic scoring, despite your comfort level with either the writing process or the prompt topic.

The details of volunteering are outlined below. If you are interested in volunteering, please come THIS Thursday, October 22 for any amount of time during the 12:30-3:30 scoring session.

Where: At IMS—sign in at the office, and you will be directed to the library.

Training: Jerry Miller, Director of Instructional Support for Issaquah School District, will be facilitating the training at the start of the scoring session for first time ASW volunteers.

Scoring: Thursday, October 22, 2009 from 12:30 - 3:30 PM. Come for any or ALL of the scoring session!

Confidentiality: Student names will not be on papers, so the identity of all students will be confidential.

Thank you for your support of IMS student learning. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Joyce Mininger, IMS Program Assistant, at 837-6801 or email at miningerj@issaquah.wednet.edu
